

INDUSTRY SESSIONS

Norwich Film Festival is passionate about supporting filmmakers on their filmmaking journey and this includes inspiring and nurturing the next generation of talent. Therefore as part of this year's festival, we have curated a series of invaluable industry sessions offering an insight into key specialisms in the world of filmmaking.

SCREENSKILLS: OPEN DOORS EVENT PANEL AND NETWORKING

9th November | 6:30pm | The Forum | Tickets: £5

Open Doors aims to give you an insight into what jobs are out there and help you build connections with industry professionals. We'll be welcoming a range of guest speakers to this event, including local production companies, universities and more!

This event is for people eager to get their foot in the door and interested to hear about different careers open to them in film and the wider creative industries.

COMMISSIONING SHORTS FOR THE SCREEN WITH BBC IDEAS & RANDOM ACTS

13th November | 1:15pm | NUA | Free - Book Online

We are delighted to welcome Cordelia Hebblethwaite (BBC Ideas) and Catherine Bray (Channel 4's Random Acts). This session will showcase a small selection of BBC Ideas and Random Acts previous short films, followed by a talk which will cover opportunities for new and emerging filmmakers looking to access schemes such as these.

Come prepped with questions around practical advice on pitching and application processes!

IN CONVERSATION WITH STEPHEN WOOLLEY BAFTA-WINNING PRODUCER

13th November | 3:30pm | NUA | Free - Book Online

We're delighted to welcome the internationally renowned Oscar-nominated and BAFTA-winning Producer Stephen Woolley to this year's Festival.

This event will be a great opportunity for audiences to learn more about the role of the producer, how to find projects and also a chance to hear about Stephen's career in film. There will be an opportunity for a Q&A from the audience during this event.
