

Year 9 Drama Homework Task

Imagine you were able to create your own reality TV programme

Use the below templates to create a storyboard that you would use to pitch your idea to a production company. Think about what would make them want to buy your idea, how would it differ from shows that are already on television?

What would the winner get? What logo would you use for your show?

